Prayer

Hymn

O God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast, And our eternal home.

Under the shadow of thy throne, Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is thine arm alone, And our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood, Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God, To endless years the same.

A thousand ages in Thy sight, Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night, Before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever rolling stream, Bears all its sons away;
They fly, forgotten, as a dream Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while troubles last, And our eternal home.

Last Post

Blowing of the Whistle to mark the start of the 2 minute Silence

The Silence

Reveille

The Laying of Wreaths by the Deputy Lieutenant of West Yorkshire, Northern Railway, the Friends of Sowerby Bridge Railway Station,
Sowerby Bridge Rotary Club, and others who wish to pay tribute

The Reading of the Roll of Honour (see back page of service sheet)

Then is said:

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old. Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn; at the going down of the sun, and in the morning, we will remember them.

*All respond: We will remember them.

Prayers concluding with the Lord's Prayer:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.
